Description

Open planned living while keeping the family close, the Kendal 232 is a dream family homestead. On entry, the wide living and dining space welcomes you into an area that is generous and inviting, with a galley style kitchen and large walk in pantry. This area opens up onto an alfresco, perfect for entertaining. A generous media room is located adjacent to the entry of the home, providing a great space for family movie nights. The bedroom wing accommodates the master suite along with three additional bedrooms creating a private sleeping sanctuary. The main bathroom and laundry are suitably located and easily accessible. This home is designed with functionality and simplicity for the growing family.
