THE KENNETH

Kosciuszko Facade

Description

When you open the front door to the Kenneth 263 you will automatically feel at home! This four bedroom home combines the living, dining and kitchen area that extends to the outdoors via a rear alfresco, making this ideal for indoor and outdoor living. The chef style kitchen will keep any cook in the family happy combining all you need with the walk-in pantry and laundry in close proximity. The master suite is centrally located within the home, offering privacy as a parents retreat. The three other bedrooms are in their own separate area which is located off the rumpus room. With distinctly separate living areas there is plenty of privacy for everyone to indulge in their favourite past time; be that reading, watching movies or playing video games.
