Description

Designed for narrow lots the Rouchel 217 is a great home for the new homeowner and or an empty nester looking to downsize. The master suite is located at the front of the home with a walk in robe and ensuite. The other three remaining bedrooms are located on the same side as the master along with a functional family bathroom. The home has a media room and study with a kitchen overlooking the dining/living area which is connected to the alfresco.
