Glendon Facade

Description

Ideal for the young family or first home buyer, the Wallis 215 gives you everything you need without breaking the budget. There's something so special about the way the simple design draws the light into the rear of the home, bringing together the kitchen, dining and living into an inviting space. Just open the doors to the alfresco, bring the outside in and enjoy! The generous master suite, with its stylish his and her walk-through robe connects to the spacious ensuite. With two additional bedrooms off the hallway, a generous family bathroom, two living areas which convert to a rumpus and media room, there is something for everyone in this design.
